REGIONAL COCKTAILS

Explore our cocktail map of India, which we have designed to take you on a journey through 5 diverse Indian states.

Our regional drinks are lower ABV than traditional cocktails and are intended to be enjoyed like wine both by the glass or shared by the bottle.

9.00 - Glass
40.00 - Bottle

Aquavit, Kummel, Strega, Elderflower, Chamomile

Rajasthan is India's largest state, an accumulation of harsh deserts, fairy tale palaces and vast fields of wheat and barley. This cocktail brings together the bright acidity of a natural wine, notes of wheat, cumin, flowers and apples, to evoke Rajasthan's agricultural and rural areas.

Fennel Pollen, LBV Port, Mint

Western Bengal is at the bottle neck of India, stretching from the Himalayas in the north to the Bay of Bengal in the south. Served like a chilled red wine, cherry and hedgerow fruits mixed with anise and mint, create the crisp sensation of the mountainous environment of Northern Bengal.

Gin, Saffron, Fortified Wine, PX Sherry, Bay Leaf

Kashmir is the northernmost state of India, famed for its production of saffron or 'kessar' in hindi. This rich cocktail celebrates the aromatic properties of Kashmiri saffron and amplifies them with flavours of bay leaf, raisin and sticky medjool dates.

Gin, Pine, Fino, Eucalyptus

Madya Pradesh is the heart of India. A heavily forested state covered in trees of bamboo and teak. Served like a classic gin martini, this cocktail presents green, grassy notes and earthy eucalyptus, reminiscent of a walk in the Madhya Pradesh forest.

Rose Vermouth, Green Cardamom, Cherry Eau De Vie

Fondly referred to as "God's Own Country"; Kerala in the south of India on the Malabar coast, is fringed with coconut palms, extensive tea plantations and sun drenched spice fields, famed for cardamom, cinnamon, nutmeg and pepper. This bright complex cocktail, combines Kerala's rich botanicals and spices with flavours of rose and rhubarb.
